

Goebig & Knowles take Broadmoor to top of industry

Sitting on top of the rolling hills of eastern Pennsylvania is a unique Morgan mecca of beauty, talent, and fun that can only be known as Broadmoor.

Trainers Mike Goebig and Dwayne Knowles are proud of the tradition they have established through many world and national champion Morgans they have shown under the Broadmoor banner.

Pennsylvania trainers present world & national champions.

Broadmoor, Kutztown, PA

Mike has been involved with Morgan horses his entire life. Opening his first public stable in 1970, he has produced many regional, national and world champions. Some of his favorites include: Equinox Damsel, Beams Warlock, Greentree Manyjane, Paramount Perfection, Three C Avenger, Opies Boy and The Masters Touch.

Mike is currently the president of the Mid-Atlantic Morgan Horse Club and is the AMHA Region 2 Director. As a director, he is active on the Registry Committee and, in the past, served as chairperson of the Professional Horseman's Committee.

Mike's hobbies include gourmet cooking, traveling and he has a strong interest in history.

Dwayne has been involved with

Morgan horses since 1979. Cutting his teeth on hack-type horses, he slowly developed a special affection for Morgans. He honed his equine skills under the expert tutelage of Mike Goebig for 12 years.

Dwayne accepted his first assignment

Dwayne Knowles (left) & Mike Goebig

as trainer at Limerick Morgans where he produced regional, national and world champions. Some of his favorites include: Paramount Your Love, Lorien Top Medalist, Bandelero, Charlestown Firecracker and Futurity Caveat. Dwayne rejoined Mike at Broadmoor as a partner in 1994.

Dwayne currently holds a large "R" judging certificate in both the Morgan division and saddleseat equitation with USAE. He has judged many regional shows throughout the United States.

His hobbies include eating gourmet meals, traveling and enhancing his computer skills.

Check out Broadmoor at the website: www.broadmor.com. Then make plans to visit Mike and Dwayne at their state-of-the-art facility in Kutztown, PA.

PG
47
104
148

