

Find 'Spirit of Play' at Ultra Morgans

The "Spirit of Play" continues at Ultra Morgans! Just ask owners Steve and Annette Smith who will tell you that their 30 years of hard work are paying off and all is well at their farm. Still, there is a lot more to accomplish, having expanded to 70 stalls, more than 30 broodmares and five stallions. They expect 24 foals this year.

Above it all, Ultra continues to establish itself as a Morgan breeding farm with great stallions, mares, foals and winning show horses.

Setting the pace since 2002 are get by senior stallion Ultras Special Agent with his offspring winning the Breeders Sweepstakes in 2002, placing reserve in 2003 and having six in the top ten in 2004.

Agent offspring have proven their solid beauty and talent by representing him well in Park, Pleasure, Classic and Western divisions. Nine of Ultras' 2005 foals are by Agent.

Also standing again at Ultra Morgans, having being repurchased by the Smiths, is Whitmorr Law And Order, sire of Ultras Proclamation and Ultras Dark Angel, both reflections of his ability to produce impressive, talented offspring.

When the Smiths bought the stallion Menomin Flash Dancer, a dual-registered pinto Morgan, they were reminded of the quote: "The world of tomorrow belongs to the person who has the vision today."

"We felt that Flash offered us the opportunity to add something different to our lineup that would not compete with our other studs and possibly attract those in the breed who want pinto markings," Steve says.

"We have purchased some well-bred mares specifically to breed to Flash."

Six foals by Flash, hopefully with lots of white and spots, are expected this year out of mares by Cedar Creek Harlequin, Chandel Absolut, Arboria Perfection, Galant Lee and their own Carlyle Upper Caisse.

Another newcomer to Ultra Morgans is Carlyle Upper Caisse who already has proven himself to be an excellent sire. He is a favorite show horse of Annette's.

And of course, Ultras Executive Order, half brother to Agent and by Whitmorr Law & Order, continues to build upon his career with owners Pat and Melissa Turpening at the control panel. He is a wonderful combination of both Law and Agent.

Steve and Annette continue to invest in the "Spirit of Play." When play re-establishes itself in your being, it will simply radiate for no reason whatsoever. It is just there, just this happiness! When you forget about striving for results, play happens – and good things begin to happen. Notice your life. Is play present? Can you be a magician and transform your work into play?

The "Spirit of Play" is waiting for you at Ultra Morgans!
