

Sales are brisk at Wyacondah Valley

Amos and Rachel Yoder standing three black stallions in Iowa.

Morgans are a way of life for Wyacondah Valley farm owner Amos Yoder and the horse business has been his profession for several years. He and his father fell in love with the breed in 1990 and Amos has focused on raising, training and selling Morgans ever since.

Sales have been brisk at Wyacondah Valley. Thanks go to 2003 Morgan buyers Paul Huffey, Nashville, TN' two fillies by DM Regency Windwalker; Levi Graver, Oden, IN, two Ranches Tom fillies; Samuel Glick and Monty Confer, a Black Tom son; Henry Stolsfus, Mt. Joy, PA, a Black Tom son; and David Helmuth, Independence, IA, a black filly.

The black stallion Ranches Tom (Black Val's Jim x Ranches A&F Crystal) was sold in 2003 to David Stoltfus of Wisconsin.

Standing at Wyacondah for 2004 are the 15-hand, black homozygous DM Regency Windwalker (Windhover Regency x Lone Tree Misty Rae) and JMF Arctic Fox (Rum Brook Immortal Image x JMF Royal Moon Fox). Added to the line up is the black stallion, Hylee's Other Brother (HyLee's Galaxy Seven x HVK Black Fantasy.) The Yoder family of Wyacondah Valley thanks HyLee Farm for selling them such an outstanding young stallion.

All the Wyacondah stallions are selected for good disposition, size and quality – and the foals and young horses reflect their quality. The stallions are kept very busy during breeding season with the farm's own mares and many outside mares. Only live cover is offered.

Wyacondah Valley Morgans is breeding for the old western working and family riding and driving horses.

The 17-head all-black broodmare band includes mares by Rimlo Black Prince, Forevermore, Flyhawk, Caduceus Jesse, Marvelous Monarch, Funquest Cafallero, Brady's Black Label, Jante Mountain Man and Winsome Moonraker and two big, black mares purchased in 2003 from Al Davidson, Burford, Ontario.

The big new barn on the 106-acre farm allows Wyacondah Valley Morgans to also offer mare foaling services to the public and to accept outside horses for both saddle and harness training.

Many of the 2004 weanlings will be for sale, in addition to some 2003 yearlings.

A special "thanks" to Harold Cochran and our friends at the Cochran Auction for the help and thoughtfulness extended to the Yoder family.
