

WC Simply Majestic: 'Face of a champion never changes!'

WC Simply Majestic is continuing to stand at private treaty in 2003! This glowing red chestnut has been welcomed to the winner's circles of Lexington, Louisville and the American Royal, each time in a different division and with a different rider or driver.

He is already gifting his versatility to his heirs. Easy to work around, consistency, and that famous head and neck are most common traits of his get, with many competing successfully from their weanling years on.

This ASAG nominated sire has already made the National Horseman's 2001 Leading Futurity Sire ranking and in 2002 as a Leading Futurity Sire and as well as in futurity prize money rankings.

The March 2002 National Horseman described him as a "hot young sire" and the March 2002 Saddle & Bridle wrote that he is "beginning to make a mark for himself...his babies exemplify quality Saddle Horse breeding."

In September 2002, the 2001 weanling star Her Radiant Majesty (pictured) placed top three in the IN Sweepstakes and won the yearling filly qualifier, yearling championship, and Grand National yearling class at the WI Futurity. Majestic Is She was WI Futurity Weanling
